

A Wish For A New Baby

I wished upon a star...
I closed my eyes and prayed,
I threw a shiny penny,
into a well each day.
The same little wish was wished,
upon my birthday cake
I asked the Lord... Please hurry, just for heaven's sake!
I was trying to be patient, but I had waited long enough my wishing well with pennies, was now completely stuffed!
I would start and end my days repeating the same prayer, I knew that up in heaven,
they could see I really cared.
Just when I thought I couldn't, bear another day
it is then that I learned,
you were on your way.
All the prayers and wishes, finally did come true
The blessing God gave me,
was my pregnancy with you!
