

Expecting A Baby

I just found out
it's no longer a maybe,
I'm now expecting a sweet little baby!

I am so very excited it's so wonderful for me,
I'm just amazed to know I'm now a mommy-to-be!

There are books to read
to answer my concerns, it's sure a good thing
God gave us 9 months to learn!

I will always remember the moment I first knew, the excitement that I felt learning it was true!

An awesome job I've been given,
to welcome a little one here to bring to this world more love and good cheer!

I just found out
it's no longer a maybe,
I'm going to be blessed with a precious little baby!
