

New Little Babies

gifts from above
sent to you
with so much love!

Swaddle them close
Wrap 'em up tight
they feel secure
never out of your sight!

Strong and brave
that's how they grow
knowing your love
will always show!

The parallel here
is for you and me
to stop and realize
what we see!

All of us are babies
sent from above
we are wrapped in the blanket we know as God's Love!
